

Duncan Savage has, after 14 vintages with Cape Point Vinyards, Now has his own winery in an urban space in salt river, CapeTown.

They make wines that are restrained, low alchohol (around 12.5%), grapes picked early using whole clusters, where appropriate and old vines wherever he can.